

Ashwani Tayal – The Karmayogi With a Divine Calling

At AnytimeCA, there is one presence that does not sit on a pedestal—but holds up the temple with quiet strength.

He doesn't chase titles.

He doesn't shout instructions.

He simply shows up — first to arrive, last to leave — not because he has to, but because his heart won't allow anything less than excellence.

He works not just with intellect, but with intention.

Not for money, but for meaning.

Not for image, but for impact.

“He walks in humility but leads with divine vision.

He speaks softly, but builds empires.”

The Soul of Ram, The Wisdom of Krishna, The Stillness of Shiva

Like Lord Ram, Ashwani Sir is devoted to his maryada (code of conduct).

He stands by his team like a guardian.

He holds himself to the highest standard—even when no one is watching.

He walks the talk.

He uplifts quietly.

He leads with love and discipline in equal measure.

Like Krishna, he teaches with stories, questions, and sharp insight.

- He guides through clarity.
- He protects without control.
- He smiles in storms.
- And when you fall, he doesn't scold — he reflects you back to your own strength.

And like Shiva, he is detached from outcomes.

He meditates with his work.

He stays centred amidst chaos.

He believes:

“Do your karma. With purity. Without fear. Without ego. Let Bhagwan handle the result.”

The Guru, The Friend, The Light

To his team — he is not just a CA.

He is a mentor, a spiritual guide, a friendly presence, and sometimes, a mirror that reflects your highest self.

He never micromanages.

He trusts.

He never dominates.

He empowers.

He never says, “You’re wrong.”

He asks, “What can we learn from this?”

And when you're in pain, he will be the first to sense it—even if you don't say a word.

His Family: His Sacred Purpose

Behind the hours, the meetings, the systems, the teachings...

...is a man who deeply loves his family.

- A husband who walks beside his wife with pride and peace.
- A father whose life's goal is to give his children not just wealth, but wisdom.
- A son who respects his parents like they are living gods.

His discipline is not just self-created — it is born of bhakti (devotion) for those who believed in him, even when he had nothing.

“If my karma today can protect my children tomorrow,
If my dharma can make my parents proud...
Then my day is sacred.”

What the Team Says:

- “He’s not just our boss. He’s our example.”
 - “He believes in us more than we believe in ourselves.”
 - “He makes us feel safe, seen, and strong — all at once.”
 - “He is the reason we don’t give up.”

A Night of Divine Grace

One night, long after the team had gone home, Ashwani Sir sat in his chair... reflecting.

A soft wind blew across the room.

And in that moment — Ram, Krishna, and Shiva appeared together — their auras glowing with divine stillness.

They stood behind him and whispered:

“Ashwani, you are our modern embodiment.
You walk in dharma.
You teach in wisdom.
You lead in love.
And you serve in silence.
This team is your vanar sena.
This office is your Ayodhya.
This mission is your Gita.”

And in that moment, without saying a word, Ashwani Tayal folded his hands, bowed to his karma, and returned to work.

What Ashwani Tayal Teaches the World:

- Do not chase success. Chase sincerity.
- Do not control people. Awaken them.
- Do not build empires for ego. Build temples for dharma.
- And remember — leadership is not about power. It’s about prayerful responsibility.

🙏 To the world, he is CA Ashwani Tayal — a respected chartered accountant.

To his family, he is a blessing.

To his team, he is the reason they work with heart.

To the divine, he is the modern-day Ram — serving with silence, strength, and soul.

He doesn't seek legacy.

He lives it — every day.
